Amazing!

➤ Holy Trinity High School students got down and dirty at the semi-annual Amazing Race, October 15.

by Stefan Spiroff, Co-op Student at Holy Trinity High School

Over 100 students from grades 9 to 12 embarked on a journey through a grueling 4 km. obstacle course at Bradford's Scanlon Creek Conservation Area.

Those who managed to cross the finish line first claimed bragging rights, as well as free T-shirts and gift cards.

Students participated in pairs, and were sorted based on their grade level and gender. To successfully complete the race, competitors had to overcome nine obstacles, including crawling under a rubber net in a puddle of mud, and walking across tightropes.

They received a "dicker" after passing each obstacle, as proof that they had successfully completed that station - and could not claim their prize unless they crossed the finish line with a total of 9 tickets.

The challenge began even before the racing: each pair of students also had to complete a logic puzzle before charging past the starting line.

Holy Trinity runs its Amazing Race twice a year (once per semester). Due to the popularity of the previous two races, the school decided to hold a third event. Each student was charged $5 admission, and a large percentage of the proceeds will be donated to the Right To Play Foundation - a charitable organization that promotes physical health and uses sport to educate and empower children in disadvantaged countries.

The senior students began the race in the morning; the junior students

Another extension for developer

Tiberian Investments was in BWG Council on October 1, asking for a 24 month extension for its Draft Plan approval and servicing allocation for a 45 Residential unit plan of subdivision, west of Melbourne Drive.

Without the extension, the approvals would lapse on October 12.

A staff report recommended extension, but by only 6 months.

Lawyer Bernie Romano appeared before Council in Open Forum on behalf of Tiberian, to argue that the extension should be at least 12 months. "We are moving forward," Romano said. "There's been important progress... It is an important infill site, and we're trying to get it done."

However, Senior Planner Tami Kijak pointed out, "The original approval came forth in 2007, and there have been numerous extensions since that time." Kijak described the 6 month extension as "a way to encourage the developer to move forward in an expeditious manner."

Asked for the reason for the delays, Romano told Council that Tiberian has had to renegotiate agreements with neighbouring landowners. "We have not stopped at any stage," he said. "The delays have been beyond our control. We've done everything we can."

He insisted that both Tiberian and its builder are "anxious" to begin construction - but a six month extension might not be enough time to get all of the outside agreements in place.

Councillor Peter Dykile Jr. supported a 12 month extension for the "important infill" project - a project that would finally provide road connectivity north from Southfield Heights.

Councillor James Leduc was opposed. "We've had these 45 (water) units tied up since 2011," he said. "If you can't do it in 6 months, I don't support this... It's just been too long already. We've got developers who have infrastructure in the ground. They could have those 45 units built this summer - and sold."

"I agree," said Councillor Del Crake. "Six months is enough... Those water units have been sitting on the shelf for too long."

Mayor Doug White expressed sympathy for the difficulties facing Tiberian, but supported the staff recommendation.

"This Council has granted extensions before," White said - and will likely consider further extensions, if they can be shown to be justified, he said, "but this adequately holds Tiberian's feet to the fire... I'm sympathetic to the situation, but I'm frustrated."

Tiberian had also requested an additional 95 units of servicing allocation - a request that Romano acknowledged was "contentious." Council deferred the request, to a future debate on allocation.

Commercial vehicle blitz

South Simcoe Police partnered with the Ministry of Transportation on October 1, to carry out a Commercial Vehicle inspection blitz, on Hwy. 89 near Cookstown - after receiving numerous complaints from local residents regarding truck safety violations. Officers inspected 41 commercial vehicles, taking 17 out of service due to mechanical and safety concerns. When defects could be repaired during the day, the vehicles were released from the inspection site, and three were beyond repair and had their licence plates seized by officers.

As well, officers laid 38 charges for offences under the Highway Traffic Act, including insecure loads, improper tires, overweight vehicles, improper brakes, and document violations.

Young cyclist struck

Just before 8 a.m. on October 18, South Simcoe Police were called to a collision on 20th Sideroad, near Concession 13 Bradford West Gwillimbury. A truck northbound on the 20th SR struck a 9 year old cyclist. The boy had been northbound on the 20th SR, when he suddenly veered onto the travelled portion of the road, and was knocked off his bicycle as the truck driver reportedly attempted to avoid contact. The child, who was wearing a helmet, was taken to hospital and treated for leg and head injuries. No charges were laid.

Theft from Leisure Centre

On October 15, 2013, South Simcoe Police were called to a theft from a locker at the Bradford Leisure Centre. A woman reported that her purse, cash, cell phone and other personal items were stolen from the change room. Investigation led to a 14 year old Bradford resident being identified as the person responsible.

On Monday, October 21, the teen was arrested. She was already on outstanding charges for similar incidents, and was facing charges of Fail to Comply with an Undertaking, Theft under $5000 and Possession of Stolen Property. She was held in custody and brought before a Youth court on Oct. 22. Some of the stolen property was recovered.

Assault and Threatening

Police were called to an Alcona residence on Oct. 15, just before 2 p.m. by the Children's Aid Society. A 13 year old boy had become upset earlier in the day, assaulting his 15 year old brother and his mother, and threatening them. The boy was arrested and held for 24 hours. Two counts of Assault and 2 counts of Threatening, and released into the custody of Children's Aid, with a court date in November. Neither of the victims required medical treatment.

Impaired by drugs

At about 6:05 a.m. on Oct. 20, South Simcoe Police were called to a single vehicle collision on 5 Sideroad south of Hwy. 89, in Infill. The driver, a 25 year old Utopia male, was arrested for Impaired Driving by drugs. He was transported to South Division, where York Regional Police performed an evaluation, and charged.

Impaired Driving

South Simcoe Police were alerted to a suspected impaired driver leaving the area of a liquor establishment in Bradford, in the early morning hours of Oct. 20. The vehicle was located and stopped just east of Bradford; the driver was found to have consumed alcohol. The 32 year old Lindsay male was arrested and transported to South Division for breath tests - but refused to provide a breath sample. He was charged with Refuse Breath Test, his vehicle was impounded, his licence suspended for 90 days, and he was released with a court date in Nov.

A look at the Speech from the Throne

MP for York-Simcoe and House Leader Peter Van Loan had praise for the October 17 Speech from the Throne, and its vision. And he rejected criticism that some of the areas highlighted seem to be trivial - from "unbundling" cable television choices, to reducing cell phone roaming charges, and narrowing the gap between U.S. and Canadian consumer prices.

"I think it's similar to what we've been doing from the start," Van Loan said - bringing in changes that support "ordinary working families - there's nobody who speaks for them."

The question the government asked was, "what can we do to help them," Van Loan said. "These are things we've been working on already... A lot of these are responses to complaints from the public."

"I think these are consistent with what we've done."

As well, he said, the "commitment to balance the budget in 2015 is important," introducing legislation requiring government to return to a balanced budget once periods of economic uncertainty or downturn are over. "That would codify what most Canadians would like to see."

But the highlight was the groundbreaking trade deal with the European Union - that will open the door for greater trade between Canada and the 28 member states of the EU.

"We are a country that depends heavily on trade - even in little Bradford," he said, predicting economic benefit, as the deal moves from "agreement in principle" to a binding legal contract. "It's better for every sector," he said. "We think there are only upsides with this."

Van Loan suggested that the feared negative impacts on the dairy and cheese industry are exaggerated, and that the Canadian industry is sufficiently robust to withstand higher imports from Europe. And for beef and pork producers willing and able to meet EU standards, there will be "huge opportunity."

He noted that there were none of the protests that greeted NAFTA, the North American Free Trade Agreement - perhaps because this time around, the Canadian government has learned from past experience. Rather than leaving dispute resolution to local, often politically-influenced and partisan courts, as happened with issues like the softwood lumber dispute, issues will be referred to an independent international tribunal.

Whereas: Communities, Businesses and Organizations across Canada have committed to these issues together to raise awareness of this working toward Waste Reduction Week.

Therefore be it Resolved: that Mayor Doug White and Members of Council hereby proclaim Waste Reduction Week, October 21-27, 2013. For more information on Waste Reduction see www.rcm.on.ca

'50s Pontiac V8 braved the weather, to come out for the Back Alley Cruisers' Pre-Snow Show, Oct. 5

Letters to the editor

Standing up for veterans

To the Editor: I am writing to correct two items in last week's Times on our Government's support for veterans.

When it comes to veterans, our Government has delivered real and meaningful support. We have delivered 4.7 billion dollars in new funding - an increase of 25%.

And in fact, the amount going directly to Veterans through benefits and programs has almost doubled - as spending is focused on veterans, not on bureaucracy. Today, close to 90% of the department's budget is going towards serving our veterans.

Information in the Times implied that severely injured veterans now receive only a one-time payment of $298,000. That is only a small part of the actual story. No mention was made of the ongoing annual benefits. For example, a seriously injured veteran receives $62,000 a year in addition to the $298,000 one-time lump sum.

In addition, Veterans receive world-class rehabilitation and training, far superior medical treatment and some benefit from services such as snow clearing, home cleaning and grass cutting services.

While the Liberal critic's letter complains about 9 offices across the country being closed, he fails to mention that as part of our efforts to improve services for Veterans, there are now 600 new points of service. On top of that, we often send a nurse or caseworker to the home of a Veteran, saving the time otherwise spent in a car in difficult travel.

I was pleased to see in the Editorial that our efforts to double the amount of money available for funeral services from $3600 to $3750 have been well-received. I would also like to note that the sum is in addition to up to $10,000 available in each case for burial services.

Our record speaks for itself and our new initiatives will continue to build on that record-delivering results for Canadians. We are proud of the commitment and sacrifice of our Veterans in standing up for Canada. We are proud to stand up for them.

Peter Van Loan, MP for York-Simcoe

Back Alley Cruisers say Thanks

To the editor: The Back Alley Cruisers Car Club of Bradford would like to thank all those who braved the cold and wet weather to help out the Helping Hand Food Bank - by attending our Pre-Snow Show on October 6.

A special thanks to the Georgian Bay Steam Show Association, Woods Brothers Installation, Cat Battlefield Rental, Reddix Industries, and Jenco Equipment Inc., as well as to all of those who donated their time. We collected a truckload of non-perishable food, and raised $2560 for the food bank.

Wrong side of Fletcher

To the editor: I'd like to know who made the south side of Fletcher St. a "No Parking" zone in front of the new Fred C. Cook Public School.

Fletcher St. is one of the heaviest-travelled streets in Bradford, linking the Northgate Dr. and Professor Day Dr. housing areas with Barrie St. (Yonge St.) for morning and afternoon commuting. Fletcher is also used by people from Britannia Ave. and Colborne St. to reach the stores, banks and restaurants at the west side of Town, without having to drive in the traffic of downtown, along Holland St.

Parents now have to park on the north side of Fletcher St. to pick up or drop off their kids, with their vehicles facing west. That means they have to drive around the block - making a series of left turns - to get back to Barrie St., and in doing so, drive past the buses, loading and off-loading kids at Chris Hadfield Elementary (the old Bradford Public School).

The Fletcher/Barrie intersection has a traffic light. Why not facilitate traffic to move east to this intersection, and allow parking on the South side of Fletcher?

My biggest concern is that, as it stands now, I and other parents have to walk our kids across traffic to take them to and pick them up from school. This is not an ideal situation, and I hope this will be addressed before a tragedy occurs.

Ben Pfeiffer, Bradford

At the Danube Seniors Leisure Centre

Elsie Love, right, presents a cheque for $2000 to Marilyn Challis, for Ronald McDonald House - funds raised through Gwilly Pin sales.

The Danube Seniors Leisure Centre held a Birthday Lunch on Oct. 17 - and not only served up a tasty hot meal, but also presented a cheque for $1,500 to Toronto's Ronald McDonald House. The funds were raised through the sale of "Gwilly" pins at this year's CarrotFest Street Festival in August - pins that were made and sold by volunteers at the Danube Centre.

The cheque was accepted by Marilyn Challis of Ronald McDonald House. "This is the 7th year" for the fundraiser, she noted. "In the last 6 years, they've donated $10,800."

The funds will support the new Ronald McDonald House, which provides a comfortable home away from home for families who are accompanying their seriously-ill children, being treated at Toronto-area hospitals.

"It is big and beautiful. There are rooms for 81 families," Challis said of the new facility, located at 240 McCaul St. Ronald McDonald House not only offers shelter, but services, meals, and even a school program, for Kindergarten through Grade 9. And it relies on donations, to Ronald McDonald House and Ronald McDonald Children's Charities, to continue to serve Ontario families.

The Danube Seniors Leisure Centre is located at 715 Simcoe Rd., east of Bradford. For information on programs and events, call 905-775-0812.

Coming up: The Danube Seniors Leisure Centre Christmas Craft Sale takes place at the Centre, 715 Simcoe Rd., on Saturday, November 9. Bake table, crafts and more.

Probus Club hosts Regional meeting

Probus - a Social club for retired and semi-retired Professional and Business people - has seen tremendous growth in Bradford.

In fact, the club grew so quickly, and the waiting list became so long, that a second club was just launched in Bradford - making it the most successful club in the region.

On Monday, October 21, the original Bradford Probus Club hosted the Probus Regional Meeting, welcoming representatives from 27 clubs, from North Bay to Scarborough. Steve Campbell, President of Probus Canada, was there to talk about the success of Probus. "In the last 8 to 10 years, it's been mushrooming," Campbell said.

While he acknowledged that the aging of the Baby Boomers may play a role, as they near retirement age, he suggested that that success has had more to do with the personal touch and word-of-mouth, of a club that focuses on social interaction - with no burden of fundraising.

Campbell pointed out that most Probus members are active volunteers, involved in various causes and organizations during their daily lives - but Probus is purely social. "Probus is their refuge from those who would ask for our wallet, for our political or religious opinion, for our time as volunteers. We've done all that, and we still do it - but this is our refuge from that," he said. Probus provides interesting speakers, interesting outings, extended coffee breaks at every meeting, and is non-sectarian, non-political, "non-fundraising."

Diamond Dreams in Bradford

Diamond Dreams jewellery held its Grand Opening, on October 19, - and owner Sabrina Natale explains the name: "Every woman has 'diamond dreams'!"

But there's another explanation; the store itself has been a long-time dream of Natale's.

"This has been a dream for most of my adult life - no, since I was little," she says. "I didn't think it would ever happen."

Last year, at the urging of her sons Nicholas and Steven and daughter-in-law Stephanie, she decided it was "now or never", and started making plans to open her own jewellery store.

There's "bling" everywhere - from the sparkly floors and lighting fixture, to the Gabriel & Co. diamonds, Thomas Sabo sterling, and Fire & Ice Canadian diamonds offered for sale, the unique "Dimples" fingerprint jewellery, Eban Stars cubic collection, ARZ Steel jewellery for men, and much more.

"We specialize in everything" Natale says. "We do everything - custom designs, appraisals, watch repairs, jewellery repairs. From little to big, we do it all... The sky's the limit."

Among those attending the opening at 449 Holland St. West, in the West Park Plaza were MP Peter Van Loon, and MPP Julia Munro, members of the Bradford Board of Trade, Bradford West Gwillimbury Mayor Doug White and Councillor Raj Sandhu and Carl Hordyk.

"I always ask, how's the economy?" said MP Van Loon, noting that economic growth is the top priority of his Conservative government.

To see stores opening that cater to discretionary spending, like a jewellery store, "is a really good sign". And he praised Natale for showcasing Canadian "Fire & Ice" diamonds.

"It's important to provide people here with the opportunity to buy Canadian diamonds - actually, Ontario diamonds," agreed MPP Munro, adding that Bradford is "coming of age", in terms of the retail options it offers.

Diamond Dreams, 448 Holland St. West, Unit 7, 905-551-2175. Open Tues.-Weds. from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Thurs. - Fri. from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. See www.facebook.com/diamonddreamsjewellers

L'Antica Ristorante: a fresh start

Photos & Story by Miriam King, Bradford Times

L'Antica Ristorante already had one Opening, back in April.

But the Bradford restaurant, which offers casual fine dining with an Italian flair, went through some "growing pains" brought in a new Chef - and on October 18th held its real, official Grand Opening.

Owner Elena Quintini has had 32 years of experience in the food sector, as the "Pasta Queen." Her recipes launched Pasta Quintini, an award-winning company - but L'Antica is the family's first venture into the restaurant business.

She, husband Orlando, and son Massimo are now running the restaurant, hands-on. "We listen to our customers, the good comments and the bad," Elena says. "We've made many menu changes."

And they brought in Paul DeRosa, a "Five Star Red Seal" Chef, who began his career in West Palm Beach and has been chef to the stars. Chef Paul prepares the stone-baked pizza, outstanding pastas and salads, the fresh seafood now offered by L'Antica, and has even added his own treasured family recipe for Focaccia Bause, from Bari, Italy, to the menu choices.

From Antipasti like Bruschetta, Arancini, Calamari Fritti and hot peppers, to Pizza, pasta, and a choice of entrees that include Vedl Parmigiana, Pollo alla Griglio, Black Angus steak, Rack of lamb, and fresh lobster, the menu offers something for everyone - from casual lunches, to special occasions.

Elena and Massimo Quintini and their staff were joined by members of the Bradford Board of Trade and Mayor Doug White for the ribbon-cutting. "This is exactly the kind of place Bradford needs," with its cheerful casual dining area beside the stone pizza oven, and more formal dining room, Mayor White said.

"A place where you can bring your wife" for a special evening out, "and your kids can have pizza!"

L'Antica Ristorante is located at 444 Holland St. West. For information see www.lanticaristorante.ca or call 905-551-3444. New: On Friday and Saturday nights, after 10:30 p.m. L'Antica transforms itself into a Club for ages 21 and up.

"Hopefully, in the first year we'll get it right," Elena says. "Hopefully the Town will support us" - and make L'Antica a family favourite.

Radical changes: a move to Lefroy

By the time this appears in The Bradford Times, Radical Hair - a full-service hairstyling salon, located at 76 Holland St. West - will be closed.

Rising rents and a building owner whose vision, going forward, didn't include a hair salon on the ground floor, persuaded owner and artistic director Cyndy Neidig to close her doors.

But clients can relax. Radical Hair manager and color master Ceci (Morell) Washington is picking up the torch. She is opening Washington House Salon at 1311 Killarney Beach Rd. in Lefroy, and bringing along the whole Radical team - both Cyndy and, J. Stylist Natalie Jennings - because, she says, "the dynamic works".

After 10 years of working for others, Ceci decided it was time to open her own salon.

"From salon manager to salon owner - it's going to be a good thing," she chose Lefroy as the location for Washington House Salon because it's a rapidly growing area, with new homes going in every week, and it's not that far - only 15 minutes or so - from Bradford.

Over the past few weeks, she's been dividing her time between the old Radical Salon, and the new Washington House, getting it ready for the Grand Opening on November 1. "It's a work in progress."

Washington House Salon will combine a welcoming atmosphere with a touch of elegance - teal accent walls, chandeliers, five hair-dressing stations. It will offer all of the traditional salon services that customers have come to expect - expert cuts, styling, coloring, highlights and foils - as well as make-up, and waxing.

And Ceci invites everyone to drop in on November 1, and join Innisfil Mayor Barb Bagley for the Ribbon Cutting at 11 a.m.

Washington House Salon will also be offering free Wash, Cut and Blow Dry to clients, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. on opening day - please call 705-290-WASH (9274) for an appointment.

Book Sale at The Print Shoppe

The Bradford Print Shoppe owner Mikki Nanowski celebrated the 30th anniversary of her business, by doing something a little different.

Yes, there were refreshments, and a remarkable cake created by Teresa Araujo (The Sugar Bowl Cakes and Treats).

But Nanowski, her staff and a small army of volunteers also held a Silent Auction of donated artwork, a sale of paper "Coffee Cups" for a tonne apiece, and a Book Sale that covered every inch of table space in the shop on Artesian Industrial Parkway with volumes that ranged from Children's Books to the classics - all to raise money for the Alzheimer Society of Greater Simcoe County.

The Sale, held October 19, raised over $1300 for Alzheimer programs, care, support, advocacy and education.

Celebrating Good Neighbours

The 19th annual Bradford West Gwillimbury Good Neighbours Awards for 2013 were presented at the Bradford Public Library & Cultural Centre, October 18 – recognizing the residents who, through their involvement, their caring, and their generosity, help to make the municipality a better place.

"It's a wonderful way of recognizing people in the community," said MP for York-Simcoe Peter Van Loan, who drove in from Ottawa to be one of the presenters. "It is a wonderful program. It is a wonderful form of recognition... of that element of neighbourliness that makes this such a great community."

MPP for York-Simcoe Julia Munro praised the volunteers, noting that Good Neighbours was once a provincial program, but now there are only a handful of these presentations. "Here we come and celebrate living, being a good neighbour. You truly do make this community the place people want to be."

Long-time president of the Good Neighbours council and Good Neighbours Ambassador Sylvia Luxton told the crowd, "This is the highlight of my year" – an opportunity to recognize informal volunteers who range in age from 6 to over 90. "That gives you a broad spectrum of what a great community we have."

Over the past 15 years, hundreds of Good Neighbours awards have been handed out, said Luxton, adding, "It's heartwarming to hear what you have done."

Leah Carmelillo, 6. At the age of 5, she launched a doll drive, to give every little girl in an orphanage in Guatemala a doll of her own. She hoped to collect 300 soft dolls, to be taken to Guatemala; she collected 340. Nikki Putrie, 10, picks up litter in local parks with her big sister and father; goes out "trick-or-treating" on Halloween to collect non-perishable food for the Helping Hand Food Bank; donates books from her own collection to the food bank to give families with children a "smar" gift at Christmas; collects pennies for the Canadian Tire Jumpstart program, and donates her own Christmas gifts to children's charities.

Mason, Lia and Mira Janse, Holly and Luke Vanderhaar. Five kids in Bond Head between the ages of 6 and 11 started a dog-walking business, and donated the funds raised to Madri Vanstone, to help pay for the medication she needs to treat her Cystic Fibrosis.

Maureen Joyce and Stella Wadsworth, founders of the annual BWG Studio Art Tour – are demonstrating that "art and artists are an integral part of a rich, nurturing environment."

Jean Calder, Connie Hughes, Marg Jackson, Bonnie Saunders, Marg Walsh, Michelle Rich, Erika Helman and Debbie Gibson, The Bond Head sewing and quilting group has made over 500 polar fleece hats, along with scarves and mitts, for charities that include Coats for Kids, the Busby shelter in Barrie, as well as comfort quilts for the Children's Aid Society of Simcoe County.

Anita and Jacqueline Horlings. Anita Horlings is active in her church, always willing to share her knowledge of First Aid/CPR, Emergency Management and Pain Management for Seniors with the community.

On Oct. 31, she and daughter Jacqueline head to Zambia, to take part in a mission trip and help build a school.

Olga Baran, a helper at the Seniors Centre, and a good neighbour who drives others to the hospital or grocery shopping.

Margaret Bath, Margaret assisted a neighbour while the neighbour's husband was ill, offering transportation and support.

John Andrews, Volunteer coach for minor hockey and high school baseball, supporter of his community, Andrews also provides foster care for unwanted dogs, nurses them back to health, then hands them over to the Humane Society for adoption.

South Simcoe Police Constable Rob Enwright. The School Resource Officer for the 3 high schools in Innisfil and Bradford, PC Enwright also works with Life Skills classes, assists special needs students and their families, volunteers his own time to take students camping – and arranged the food donations for a Christmas Dinner at Holy Trinity High, for needy families.

Pat Redmond is quick to step up, when neighbours are in need, cooking meals, cleaning, nursing,

Dingo Farms' "Medication for Madi"

"We are a community. Our individual fates are linked; our futures intertwined; and if we act in that knowledge, and in that spirit together, we can move mountains."

It is in the spirit of community that Dingo

Farms is hosting a fundraiser for Madi Vanstone - the 11 year old student who is among the 3 to 4% of Cystic Fibrosis patients who benefit from the new drug, Kalydeco (Ivacaftor). But the huge price-tag of the drug is as much of a struggle as the CF itself.

This Saturday, October 26, come out to Dingo Farms, 3412 - 8th Line BWG to enjoy the fall scenery, and raise funds for Madi.

All proceeds from the BBQ of burgers and sausages, and 20% of all boxed, wrapped and freezer order meat sales, and 15% of all cured meat sales will be donated.

As well, a photographer will be on hand, taking family photographs in this beautiful farm setting. For a $25 donation to "Medication for Madi", receive 5 professional photos of your family in high resolution, on a CD that can be printed at any photo lab. CDs will be ready for pick-up at Dingo Farms on November 9.

Accessible Hallowe'en

Kids love Hallowe'en - but it can pose some challenges for children with sensory issues, physical challenges, restricted diets or other special needs. How does a child who doesn't speak say "Trick or Treat"? How does a child in a wheelchair get up the stairs of neighbourhood homes to ring the doorbell?

Children's Treatment Network is hosting inclusive Hallowe'en events in Simcoe County and York Region. Children with special needs and their families are welcome to come and trick or treat "door to door" in safe, accessible buildings, decorated for Hallowe'en. Each door is actually a treatment room, and kids can socialize, parents connect, and siblings see where a brother or sister comes to get therapy, in:

Hope in Purple Heels

The statistics are shocking: In 2006, there were an estimated 10,000 single women who were living in poverty in York Region, at risk of becoming homeless -

"and that number continues to grow," said Melissa Grolo, of CP24. Grelo emceed "Hope in Purple Heels," a gala evening of fashion and fundraising at Upper Canada Mall in Newmarket, October 19, for Belinda's Place - York Region's first shelter specifically for single homeless women.

Belinda's Place is named for Belinda Stronach, honorary chair and the driving force behind the Community Team and fundraising effort for the shelter. Starting with a $1 million donation from Magna International, the Belinda's Place Foundation set out to raise another million from community donations, and is within sight of the target.

Over $840,000 has been raised, including at least $50,000 from this year's Gala, Stronach said, and the shovel is in the ground at the corner of Sawmill Valley Drive and Yonge St. Belinda's Place is slated to open in March 2015, with both emergency and transitional shelter beds.

Upper Canada Mall and owner Oxford Properties have hosted Hope in Purple Heels for the past 3 years, covering the costs of the Gala so that 100% of ticket sales can go to Belinda's Place, "creating hope for women without a home in York Region," said Robert Horst, GM. "Upper Canada Mall passionately cares about making a better community, and homelessness is a problem that exists in York Region - although you'd think it wouldn't be... We want to meet the needs of all members of our society."

Gala-goers enjoyed food prepared by Edward Street Bistro, wine and beer, door prizes donated by Mall retailers, and watched a fashion show, with fashions from stores that included RW & Co., Rudskak, Evra & Eve, Tristan and Simon Chang. They were entertained by singer and Juno Award-winner, Divine Brown. And they brought Belinda's Place closer to opening its doors.

Dignity Day: A ripple effect

"Dignity Day is one of my favourite days of the year," Jennifer Corriero co-founder of Taking IT Global, told students at Fieldcrest Elementary School on October 16, "because it gives me hope."

It is, she said, like throwing a rock into a pond, and creating ripples - "A day where we can all have a ripple effect in a positive way, because when you increase the dignity of one person, it increases dignity in the world." Taking IT Global hosts Global Dignity Day, linking schools in 50 countries around the world, through its video-conferencing equipment.

Fieldcrest ES in Bradford was not only participating in the 6th annual Global Dignity Day, but hosting the global video conference - and broadcasting a presentation by a speaker whose dignity was restored, through caring, respect, and education.

The speaker was Mohamed Sidibay, former child soldier from Sierra Leone.

At the age of 3, Mohamed was kidnapped by the Revolutionary United Front, torn away from his family, and forced to carry a gun, "that was taller than me, and weighed almost as much as I did," he told the students in grades 4 through 8, challenging them to imagine his life. "When you were three, everything was taken away from you - no Mom to cry to, No dad."

He tried to run away but didn't get far. Usually the penalty for running away was death. "I got lucky. I wasn't killed. I was beaten. I was burned."

Instead, he spent the next 5 years as a child soldier in Sierra Leone's civil war, a bloody conflict that took at least 30,000 lives. He was forced to kill, to take drugs, to see death in all its forms. "I've seen it all. I've seen the worst of humanity." He lost everything - his freedom, his childhood, his education, his family, and especially, the right to question, to ask "Why?" Yet Sidibay "didn't let that decide my future."

Danish team plays in Blue & Gold Tourney

Bradford Bulldogs Minor Midgets (at left) hosted the Rodovre hockey team from Denmark, at the Blue & Gold Tournament - but it took some last minute talks with Hockey Canada and the Ontario Hockey Federation to allow the Danish visitors to play. Below: On-ice action during the October 19 game between Bradford and Denmark. Submitted photo

The Rodovre Hockey Club from Denmark finally did get to play in the Blue & Gold Tournament in Bradford, over the weekend.

Initially, the 15 and 16 year old players from Denmark were told they were ineligible to play because their club was not approved by Hockey Canada and the Ontario Hockey Federation. No OMHA team or official would be permitted to play the team.

But last-minute negotiations between the organizers of the Tournament and the Canadian hockey organizations allowed the Danish visitors to take to the ice, and play in the Minor Midget Division.

They met Lorne Park on Friday night, and played the Bradford Bulldogs on Saturday afternoon, at the Bradford West Gwillimbury Leisure Centre.

Bradford West Gwillimbury Mayor Doug White dropped the puck for the international game - and in an exciting match, Denmark won 3-2.

Bradford Bantams win Blue & Gold Championship

Bradford hosted a Blue and Gold Rep Tournament on the weekend - and the Bradford Bantams "A" Rep team successfully defended their title as Champions.

This was a much closer battle than the score indicated; all boys worked hard, but ran into penalty issues. Game 4, Bradford - 3, Mooretown Storm - 3. In a hard-fought match, Goals to Xavier Drummond, Evan Lewis and Derian Carter, from Moniz, Beadle and Carter. The tie gave Bradford 2nd place in the Round Robin, and a berth in the semi-final.

Semi-Final, Bradford - 3, Toronto Royals - 2. Hard-fought, see-saw battle that went into triple overtime. Goals by Xavier Drummond from Derian Carter and Joe Heath; and Cole Camenzull with a pair, including the game winner, from Jacob Beadle and Curtis Dubeau. Exciting match!

Championship Final, Bradford - 4, Cobourg - 3 - again decided in triple overtime! Bradford goals by Mathew Ventura from Cole Camenzull and Vandi Chit; Evan Lewis unassisted; and Curtis Dubeau, unassisted. With less than 4 minutes left in the final overtime period, Isaac Moniz was tripped, going in on a breakaway, and awarded a penalty shot. He scored, giving Bradford the win, and the Championship!

Congratulations to the team. Special thanks to Noah Duva for stellar goaltending; he carried the load all weekend due to Nick Ingolia's injury. Thanks to Raine Rutledge, who helped our depleted roster. And special thanks to the organizers, especially Stephen Pereira for his tireless efforts to keep everything in order. BWGMMHA brought more than 50 teams to the community this weekend. The Blue & Gold Tourneys continue to grow and attract teams from all over the world. - Coaching staff.

ran in the afternoon. Each race lasted for about an hour-and-a-half.

Only Mclaughlin and Alanna Jakolevic finished first in the Senior Girls division, while bro-power was evident when twins Connor and Brodie Fountain finished first in Boys.

Boys, Andre Zimmer and Zoe Ferguile were crowned the victors of the Jr. Boys division; Rachel Keam and Gulsara Gershi were first in Jr. Girls.

"I think that the Grade 11 and 12 students showed more spirit than the younger grades," said Ms. Mclaughlin, one of the organizers of the event.

and a Phys. Ed. Teacher at Holy Trinity, "I had to convince some of my junior students to participate because some of them just didn't want to get their clothes dirty!"

They may have hesitated, but by the end of the day all students, regardless of age, were covered in a thick coat of mud. Winners in each division received an Amazing Race T-shirt, and a $25 cineplex movie gift card - thanks to Kevin Augustin of Altona Sobey, Simon Simcoe Police Constable Rob Enwright, and members of Holy Trinity's Athletic Council who ran each station. There will be a 4th Amazing Race in the spring.

Global Dignity Day: The ripple effect

He was nearly 10 when the war ended - brought to a close not so much by the U.N. Peacekeeping force that Sidibay came to the aid of the people themselves, who finally began to question the conflict, and ask, "Why?"

In Freetown, unwanted and unwelcome as a former child soldier, Sidibay drifted. He used drugs, "overwhelmed" by anger, "I didn't know who I was."

It was only when a friend persuaded him to become involved with a program run by IEARN, an international education and resource network, that he began his way. "All of a sudden, I was surrounded by people who valued education," Sidibay said. "Give me an education and he can rebuild the world. Education is what got me here. Education is what made me what I am."

That's where teacher Matt Bickley, then at W.H. Day Elementary School, first met Sidibay. A co-chair of IEARN

Canada, Bickley and her grade 5 class communicated with the former child soldier via the internet, and raised funds to help support him for several years.

Sidibay came to the U.S. at the age of 14, with $50 in his pocket; he is now 21, and in the 3rd year of University, studying Peace and Conflict. "I used to think education would help me forget," he said. "I can never forget what happened. Instead, education is going to let me find out and understand the "why." I've come to realize that your past and present make you what you are."

He told the students, "You are the future leaders of tomorrow. That's not a lie. You are going to change the world... Start by changing yourself, because when you change yourself, you change the person next to you, your friends, your family - the ripple effect."

Corriero pointed out the other side of the coin: just as their actions can build dignity, they can also tear it down, through cruelty and bullying.

"If you take dignity away from someone else, you lose away your own dignity. It's win-win or take-or-lose. It's very important to realize the power we have."

HORLINGS-CHIDENTON, Henrietta - Peacefully passed into the arms of Jesus on Saturday, October 12, 2013. She was born on May 23, 1921 in the Netherlands to Wilfred and Herrn Prins. The family moved to the Holland Marsh, Ontario in the 1930's. Henrietta married George Horlings on October 6, 1939. They raised three children, Harold (Hal) Horlings, Winifred Geason, and Herdy Geason. After George's death in 1965, she married George Chidenton in 1974. Henrietta was a loving, Christian woman who was an example of faith for her children, grandchildren, friends, and all who knew or cared for her. We remember her love of animals, traveling, studying her Bible, her beautiful prayers, and her artistic photography. She will be truly missed by her children and all who were lucky enough to spend time with her. She leaves behind her three children and spouses, eight grandchildren and their spouses, and thirteen great grandchildren. Preceding her in death was her mother and father (Wilfred and Ham Prins), two loving husbands, George Horlings and George Chidenton, and her brother, Herman Prins. A Memorial Service will be held to celebrate her full, rich life on Saturday, October 26, 2013 at 2 PM at the Holland Marsh Christian Reformed Church, 19355 Dufferin Street, Newmarket, Rev. Henk Bruinsma officiating. Please visit Henrietta's Book of Memories at www.wrdfunerhome.com

Up in the clouds

What does this photo look like to you?

The photo was taken by Fatima Pereira on the morning of August 21, from her kitchen window - just because it was an interesting cloud, with beautiful light effects.

"I didn't see it when I took the picture, but when I downloaded... the photo opened on her computer upside-down, and she saw a figure."

To Pereira, the image was clear: She had been worrying and praying to the Virgin Mary about her son, about an upcoming serious medical test, related to her own health. "I put everything in the Virgin Mary's hands."

Others have seen a bride, an Angel, even Princess Diana.
